Brazilian music.
Live, up close.

Samba, choro and moments to remember.

17 years of music

Founded by Fernando Fontes in Rio de Janeiro, Cartola de Noel brings together seven professional musicians performing samba, choro and Brazilian music. Its history includes theatres, cultural events and cities across Brazil, as well as Asunción, Paraguay, in 2018.

Historical guest appearances on recordings include Ney Matogrosso (Tico-Tico no Fubá) and Martinho da Vila (Confesso). These guest artists are not included in the performances offered for booking.

A performance for your occasion.

Flexible line-ups, from quartet to full ensemble.

04 Quartet

Hotels, restaurants, lounges and intimate experiences.

05 Quintet

Receptions and mid-sized events.

07 Full ensemble

Festivals, corporate events and major celebrations.

Personnel, duration, repertoire, technical requirements, logistics, fees and availability are agreed in a tailored proposal. Smaller ensembles have no fixed personnel.

Special projects

Divulga Brasil - Music and poetry for international audiences. Presented in Asunción in 2018; new touring opportunities are being sought.

Valoriza Brasil - Authorised to raise funds under Brazil’s Rouanet Law, PRONAC 260853. Implementation depends on fundraising and the project’s applicable requirements.

Let’s plan the next performance.
